

Kingdom Values

of Manheim Christian Day School

1. Brotherhood concepts for entire school family
 - a. Being involved in God's kingdom where the watchword is love: love for God, love for neighbor, and love for self
 - b. Building a relationship with people, so they will listen when you speak
 - c. Praying for each other
 - d. Confronting when necessary (not gossiping)
 - e. Getting rid of masks so others can see who you are and can help you
 - f. Caring enough for each other to help when we see a need
2. Discipline
 - a. Through constructive discipline pupils learn the results of bad conduct.
 - b. With proper motivation profitable attitudes and activities develop.
 - c. As success shows, rewards begin. Rewards usually come in the form of special privileges.
