

This is to remind you of an ongoing opportunity in Anabaptist education at The Dock for Learning. The Conservative Anabaptist Education Committee, along with the Resource Group at Faith Builders, has been operating The Dock, a website for teachers and school boards in Christian schools. Since opening in 2017, we have seen steady growth in its use and reach. With over 500 registered users, a weekly email digest, and daily additions to the website, it has become a great asset to our educators, not only here but in many other countries around the world.

Our costs have been covered so far by donations, both from individuals and organizations. We operate under formal agreements that provide funding for The Dock through CAEC. Our annual costs for maintenance are set at $35,000.

With these ongoing needs, we are proposing that schools help support the operation of The Dock with annual donations. Suggested amounts could vary from $100 to $1000, depending on the size and operating budget of your school. We ask you to prayerfully consider joining this effort in the interests of our Christian schools and teachers. Feel free to contact us if you have questions. We also ask your prayer support and invite you to take a moment to visit thedockforlearning.org to see the many good things that are happening there.

To respond to this need, please consider filling out the pledge form below. Pledges may also be entered online on The Dock's Give page. If you need more information, please contact Mark Webb at markwebb902@gmail.com or (540) 717-2116. If needed, tax-deductible receipts will be given in accordance with tax laws. Please send postal mail to CAEC, Mark Webb, 10555 Lew Jones Rd, Rawlings, VA 23876.

We appreciate your consideration.
