

Before answering questions on notebook paper, divide the paper into two columns. Some answers come from the book Doctrines of the Bible. Reading every word in that book is not required. However, before asking classmates for help, carefully read any indicated pages and indicated verses. If a page number or verse is listed after a question, the answer should come from that page or verse. To answer some questions may require reading the Bible. It should not shock us if at times we do not feel like studying the Bible – for we have an enemy who does not want us to take the sword of the Spirit and fight “against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph 6:12). As we study the word of God, may we allow it to accomplish in our lives what God wants it to accomplish – for “blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it” (Lk 11:28). As God speaks to us, may we not harden our hearts. Instead, may we make all the changes He asks of us (even the uncomfortable ones).

8. From Ro 5:6, write two descriptions of the people for whom Christ died.
9. By what are we justified? (Ro 5:9)
10. How were we reconciled to God? (Ro 5:10)
11. In our study of God's plan of salvation, let us stay close to the Bible and the Bible's terminology. As you read, be careful about terminology that does not come from the Scripture. Often, popular terminology is closely connected to the philosophical system of Calvinism. A popular expression is that Christ died in our place. But consider the words "Christ died for us" (Ro 5:8). The word translated "for" means "on behalf of." Thus an expanded translation of the end of Ro 5:8 would be "Christ died on behalf of us." The word translated "for" near the end of Ro 5:6 is the same word that is in Ro 5:8. Write an expanded translation of the end of Ro 5:6.
12. The KJV has atonement at the end of Ro 5:11, but other translations say reconciliation. In 2Co 5:18-19, the KJV agrees with other translations by using reconciliation for that Greek word. In 2Co 5:20, what plea does Paul make on behalf of Christ?
13. According to John the Baptist, what does the Lamb of God do? (Jn 1:29; 245)
14. According to Heb 10:4, what can the blood of bulls and goats not do?

15. The words paid, payment, etc. are often used. However, that terminology is not used in the NT when speaking of Christ's work on our behalf. What does 1Ti 2:5 call the man Christ Jesus? What does 1Ti 2:6a say that Jesus did?
16. Lk 4:29-30 records a time when Jesus escaped harm from people who were angry with Him. Jn 7:30 records a time when people were unable to capture Him. But eventually He was captured and crucified. Ps 22 prophetically speaks of this. It has been claimed that the Father turned away His face from Jesus. Write a clause from Ps 22:24 that is contrary to such teaching.
17. List 4 things that p. 253 says that Jesus did in the midst of His sufferings.
18. What does 2Pe 3:9 say that God does not wish? (253)

V.2
1. Through what is our redemption? (255; Eph 1:7)
 2. Various words are translated as redeem or some form of that word. Write three meanings for redemption (255).
 3. Even though the NT uses the term bought, it does not use the term paid when speaking of what Christ has done for us. We need to be careful not to carry analogies too far.  4. What day is mentioned in Eph 4:30?

 12. In Col 1:14, what concept is closely related to redemption through the blood of Jesus? (259)
 13. It has been claimed that God "imputes unto us the righteousness of Jesus Christ." Such an expression does not occur in the NT. The word translated impute in Ro 4:8 is also translated reckon or count or account or some variation of those words (as well as some other ways). Why is the man in Ro 4:8 blessed?
 14. What is reckoned (imputed, counted) for righteousness in Ro 4:5?
